

Institute for Spiritual Studies

A Ministry of St Peter's Eastern Hill

Anglican parish church of the City of Melbourne since 1847

PROGRAM

SEMESTER 2

2018

Saturday 22 September | 10 am - 12.30 pm
in association with Penguin Random House and St Peter's Bookroom:

2018 SPRING SYMPOSIUM CHRISTIANITY IN THE PUBLIC SPHERE

Father Rod Bower

Rector of Gosford, writer and activist will be launching and signing his new book:

Outspoken: Because all justice is social.

Dr Robyn Whitaker

Pilgrim Theological College, University of Divinity

Are Christians Persecuted in Contemporary Australia?

Dr Stephen Duckett

Director of the Health Program, Grattan Institute

Arguing in the Public Square: Christian and Other Voices about Assisted Dying in Victoria

St Peter's Church, cr Gisborne and Albert Streets, Melbourne 3002

$20.00

Reservations

Book and pay at <https://www.trybooking.com/XBLM>

or book at iss@stpeters.org.au or (03) 9662 2391 and pay at the door

Thursday 11 October | 7.30 - 9.30pm

MANNING CLARK: AN EYE FOR ETERNITY

Presenters: Mark McKenna and Sebastian Clark

Manning Clark, Australia's most famous historian, was the son and brother of Anglican clergymen. On the big questions of life he described himself as "a pilgrim for the truth." This seminar will discuss Manning Clark's religious background and his interest in Catholicism despite his doubts.

Mark McKenna is the author of An Eye for Eternity: The Life of Manning Clark which won the non-fiction category of the 2012 Prime Minister's Literary Awards.

Sebastian Clark is President of Manning Clark House Canberra.

St Peter's Hall, 15 Gisborne Street, East Melbourne

Light supper provided.

Cost $15 (concession: $12)

Institute for Spiritual Studies

A Ministry of St Peter's Eastern Hill

Anglican parish church of the City of Melbourne since 1847

Director: The Revd Dr Hugh Kempster

Chair: Nicholas Browne

St Peter's Eastern Hill

155 Gisborne Street Melbourne 3002

Office: (03) 9662 2391

www.stpeters.org.au/iss

iss@stpeters.org.au