THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Isaiah 61.10-62.3

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations. For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her indication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 105

O give thanks to the Lord, call on his name,
make known his deeds among the peoples.
Sing to him, sing praises to him;
tell of all his wonderful works. R.

Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.
Seek the Lord and his strength;
seek his presence continually. R.

Remember the wonderful works he has done,
his miracles, and the judgments he uttered,
O offspring of his servant Abraham,
children of Jacob, his chosen ones. R.

He is mindful of his covenant forever,
of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations,
the covenant that he made with Abraham,
his sworn promise to Isaac. R.

THE EPISTLE: Galatians 4.4-7

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians.

But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, 'Abba! Father!' So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets; now God speaks to us through the Son.

Deacon:

The Lord be with you.

And also with you

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 2.15-21

✠ Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.' So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them. After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Please sit for the Homily by Fr Michael Bowie that is, seen and un-seen. We be-lieve in one Lord, Je- sus Christ, the on-ly Son of God, e - ter-nal-ly be-got-ten of the Fa-ther, God from God, light from light, true God from true God, be- got-ten, not made of one be- ing with the Fa- ther through him all was in-car-nate of the Ho- ly Spi-rit and the vir- gin Ma-ry, and be-came tru-ly hu-man.

For our sake he was cru-ci-fied un-der Pon-tius Pi-late, he suf-fered death and was bu-ried.

On the third day he rose a- gain in ac-cor-dance with the scrip-tures. He as-cen-ded glo-ry to judge the liv- ing and the dead and his king-dom will have no end.

We be-lieve in the Ho-ly Spi-rit, the Lord the gi-ver of life who pro-ceeds from the Fa-ther and the Son, who with the Fa-ther and the Son is wor-shipped and glo-ri-fied, who has spo-ken through the Pro-phets. We be-lieve in one Ho-ly cath-o-lic and ap-o sto-lic Church. We ac-know-ledge one bap-tism for the for-give-ness of sins. We look for the

THE ANGELUS

The Angel of the Lord brought ti - dings to Mary: And she conceived by the Ho - ly Ghost.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee,

Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Je - sus:

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. A - men.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord: Be it unto me ac - cord - ing to thy word.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee,

Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Je - sus:

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. A - men.

And the Word was made flesh: And dwelt a - mong us.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee,

Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Je - sus:

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. A - men.

Pray for us O Holy Mother of God. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. We beseech thee O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts, that as we have known the incarnation of thy son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by his cross and passion we may be brought to the glory of his resurrection. Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Weekly Reflections

There is a little-known work by the English poet, Christina Rossetti, published towards the end of her life in 1885 which is simply titled, Time Flies: A Reading Diary. It contains short prose and poetic devotional meditations for each day of the year. These reflections, anchored in the Anglican Church Calendar, are personal but also broad in their subject matter. Some are dedicated to the Feast of that particular day's saint; others draw on a line from the Gospels. Quite a number take their inspiration from the natural world.

Christina Rossetti begins her Reading Diary on January 1: The Feast of the Circumcision, with these following words - 'Mother Church who opens the ecclesiastical year for her children with alarum of Advent, opens for them the civil year with a Divine example of self denial.' Christ began his earthly life in circumstances of material privation and hardship. His spiritual life on earth began 'in a sense' at his circumcision with the suffering of shedding blood. All this was done out of 'the loving choice' of Divine free will. Rossetti then reminds us of our call not to premise life on seeking to find our own comfort, 'eager to lie soft and warm', but to be alert to the pain and need of others. To see and then find ways of bringing healing to another, is to see and act on the revelation of Christ in others.

'Time flies' is an expression taken by Rossetti from 1st century BCE classical poet Virgil. It's translated from the Latin: tempus fugit. A question today (even then perhaps) could be, is it time that flies or is it we who fly fast through time? I'm struck by Mary's reaction in Luke's Gospel when the shepherds tell her the words the angels had said to them about this child, Jesus: she 'treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.' (Luke 2:19) She seems to enter a space of time-lessness within herself.

There is no dedicated Christian road map explaining how we bring peace into the world or enable comfort to be given to others. We have charts, such as a way shown in the Beatitudes or example in praying the Lord's Prayer. We have the Gospels and the other books in the New Testament. But in essence, the Christian way is simply and radically, Christ himself. This means knowing our own selves in relationship with our Lord. And for each of us this relationship will be utterly unique, without coercion or manipulation; life giving in its offering to us the choice of free will. Therefore, who we are and what we do will be individual and unrepeatable, drawn out in Christ from our gifts and talents. But we can only know this relationship by giving ourselves time to ponder these mysteries in our hearts. Like Mary, entering that space of time-lessness.

This coming year of 2024 as we move through the necessary tasks and routines of each day, may we weave into the rhythm of our own lives intervals of rest and reflection so that consciousness of Christ's relationship within us may grow. May we be alert to the very present pain and distress of others, resisting the temptation of time to numb us into distraction. May each day be one that matters in the growing of God's kingdom here on earth.
