THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

5TH MAY 2019

Almighty God, through your only Son you overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: grant that we who celebrate our Lord's resurrection, may, through the renewing power of your Spirit, rise from the death of sin to the life of righteousness; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Please feel free to take this pew sheet home.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

My Musings this week are an update on a number of issues discussed and decided on recently by the Parish Council and the Charitable Foundation. By way of transparency and clear communication I outline them below.

Roof Works

Over the past decade the Parish has been gradually replacing the Church Roof, and last year we were awarded a grant to complete the penultimate section of roofing. Other than for regular services, which will continue as usual, during the week the church will often be closed for work-safety reasons. Should you require access to the church at any time, please contact the Parish Office: (03) 9662-2391.

Grand Opening of the Corner Plaza

Although the Corner Plaza has now been open for a few weeks, there are a some final jobs that are holding up the completion of the project: cleaning and restoration of the Wayside Cross, manufacture and installation of a security gate near the Maynard Kitchen, and completion of the roof-works. As June is fast approaching, we are not confident that the project will be fully finished in time for our Patronal Festival. In addition, neither the Archbishop nor the Governor General are available on that day. So, the current proposal is that we reschedule the Grand Opening for Sunday 10th November, after a 10am Parish High Mass. This date has a number of advantages: we can be confident that all the works will be complete; the weather is likely to be warmer; we have another opportunity to invite key dignitaries; the eve of Remembrance Day is very fitting for a re-dedication of our Wayside Cross.

Parish Support Team Process

Last month the Parish Council unanimously voted in support of Bp Genieve's "Support Teams Process" which is now underway. A flier outlining this Diocesan process was handed out to all parishioners at Mass last week. For those who may not yet have seen it, there are copies at the back of church and on the Welcome Table in the hall on Sundays. The Bishop's delegates, directing the process are: the Rev'd Wendy Wade, and Mr Alan Grant. Presently Wendy and Alan are meeting with the Vicar, the Wardens, and the other members of Parish Council. There will be opportunities for other meetings in the coming weeks, which will be clearly advertised and communicated with Parishioners. It is a parish process and so restricted to those on the Parish Roll. The parish contact person, should you require any further information is: Mr Craig Wilson (ph: 0400-799-034 e-mail: ccw01@bigpond.net.au).

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Acts 5.27-32, 40b-41

The captain went with the temple police and brought the apostles, who were teaching in the temple, and had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned the apostles, saying, “We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man’s blood on us.” But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Saviour that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.” Then the council ordered the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. As they left the council, they rejoiced that they were considered worthy to suffer dishonour for the sake of the name.

Psalm : 30.1+3, 4-5, 10+11a+12b

I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up,
and did not let my foes rejoice over me.

O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit. R.

Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger is but for a moment;
his favour is for a lifetime.

Weeping may linger for the night,
but joy comes with the morning. R.

Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me!

O Lord, be my helper!

You have turned my mourning into dancing.

O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever. R.

Second Reading : Revelation 5.11-14

I, John, looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!” Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, “To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might forever and ever!” And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshipped.

Gospel : John 21.1-19

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will go with you.” They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Children, you have no fish, have you?” They answered him, “No.” He said to them, “Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about ninety metres off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.” So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my lambs.” A second time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Tend my sheep.” He said to him the third time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, “Do you love me?” And he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.” He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God. After this he said to him, “Follow me.”
