DAY
2019

God of glory, fill your Church with the power that flows from Christ's resurrection, that, in the midst of this sinful world, it may signal the beginning of a renewed humanity, raised to new life with Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Vicar's Musings

A few years ago I was waiting for a plane at Tullamarine airport, and two of my best friends from New Zealand bowled up to me in the departure lounge. We were all going to the same Religious Studies conference in Canberra, and were coincidentally booked on the same flight. We laughed about the chance of that, went for a coffee, and then joined the queue on the plane to take our seats. Imagine the hilarity when we discovered that we were in seats B, C and D of the same row!

Such coincidences happen from time to time, like when you are talking about someone and then they call you or send you a text. I call them God-incidences. They remind me that life is not always predictable, and mysterious things do happen. However much I think that life is fully knowable and under control, there is always a dash of mystery lurking beneath the surface.

That is Easter, in a nutshell: a dash of mystery. Jesus was crucified; that is historical fact. The early Church established itself in the first century and wrote what we now call the New Testament; that too is historical fact. What happened in between these two incontrovertible facts is the case in point. What was this mysterious powerful force that touched so many lives, and inspired thousands of people in the first-century to call themselves Christian, even at considerable risk to their own lives?

This dash of mystery is still changing lives today. It is, in a word, Resurrection.

MASS READINGS

First Reading : Acts 10.34a,36-43

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius. “You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ— he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. “We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. “He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Psalm : 118.1-2, 16-17, 22-23

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his steadfast love endures forever.

Let Israel say,

“His steadfast love endures forever.” R.

“The right hand of the Lord is exalted;
the right hand of the Lord does valiantly.”

I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the Lord. R.

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the Lord’s doing;
it is marvellous in our eyes. R.

Second Reading : Colossians 3.1-4

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Gospel Antiphon:

Gospel : John 20.1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary Magdalene stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” which means Teacher. Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,” and she told them that he had said these things to her.

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE - COFFEE CARAVAN UPDATE

The Social Enterprise Coffee Caravan is nearly ready to go. Thanks to the generosity of parishioners and others during the 2018 St Peter's Eastern Hill Charitable Foundation fundraising campaign, we have been able to purchase a caravan and coffee machine, and all going well will commence weekday trading next month. We are currently finalising compliance with Melbourne City Council and a few other preparatory details. In the coming weeks the Social Enterprise Management Committee will be seeking to employ a Head Barista, and then we hope you will come and sample the delights of "Heaven at The Hill" coffee and muffins!

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS SEMINAR AT ST PETER'S

TUESDAY 30TH APRIL AT 10AM - 3PM IN THE PARISH HALL

It is a requirement of Archbishop in Council that all the following members of St Peter's Eastern Hill attend at least one Professional Standards Seminar in 2019: Clergy, Parish Lay Staff, Churchwardens, Parish Council members, Lay Ministers, and key parish volunteers (e.g servers, children's ministry etc). Please note that these training seminars are different from the OH&S sessions that were run in 2015. The Professional Standards seminars have been updated from the previous training that most Clergy have attended. Professional Standards Seminars should be completed every 3 years and anyone who has not attended a seminar since 2014 should attend one in 2019.

To assist St Peter's staff and volunteers in fulfilling this Diocesan requirement, we are hosting our own Professional Standards Seminar, facilitated by Ms Angela Cannon, at St Peter's Eastern Hill on Tuesday 30th April between 10am and 3pm in the Parish Hall. Tea and Coffee will be provided. Delegates will be required to sign the attendance sheet at the conclusion of the seminar to allow for entry into the Diocesan and Parish databases.

We are aware that this time may not suit everyone. If you are unable to attend this seminar, you will need to attend one of the other 2019 Diocesan Seminars. A list of these can be found at <https://bit.ly/2WUY6Ua>

Please note: If you have attended a Professional Standards Act seminar in the past three years you do not need to attend this seminar again. If you have not attended any – you are required to do so if you are in a ministry or key volunteer role.

ST PETER'S BOOKROOM & CHURCH SUPPLIES

St Peter's Bookroom wishes all parishioners and customers a happy and holy Easter.

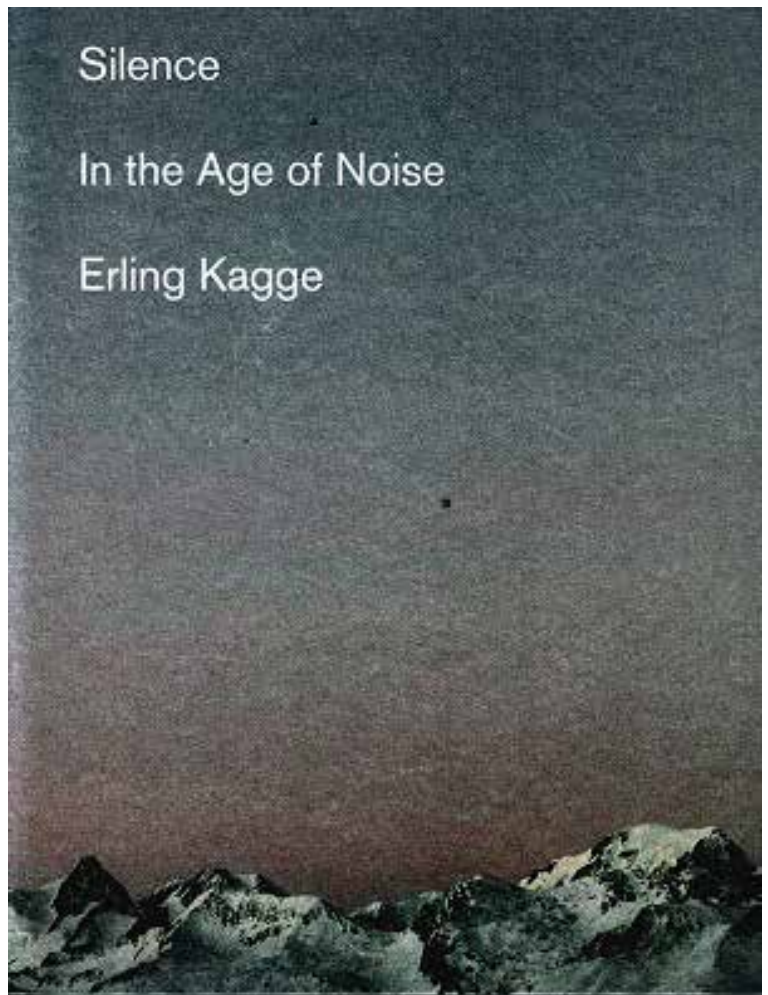

We will be closed until Tuesday 23rd April, and for ANZAC Day 25th April 2019.

NEW from the Bookroom

A book which flows from reflective, gentle moods, pondering life and knowing the value of silence and stillness:

Silence: In the Age of Noise by Erling Kagge

'Is it possible to be present in the world, and not present at the same time? I think it is. To me, when I dwell on the horizon...study a rock with green moss... or simply hold a child in my arms are the greatest.'
