LENT 1
10TH MARCH 2019

O saving God, who led your people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land: so guide us that, following our Saviour, we may walk through the wilderness of this world and be brought to the glory of the world which is to come; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please feel free to take this pew sheet home.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

On Wednesday we gathered to mark the beginning of Lent. After the 7.15am Mass a few of us went down to Parliament Station, as has become our custom each year, to administer “Ashes to Go” for busy commuters on their way to work. On returning to church, we shared in this ritual with members of the Lazarus Centre.

One man had tears in his eyes as I imposed the ashen cross on his forehead. “I remember when you and your wife were sleeping under the elm tree last year,” I recollected.

“Yes,” he said, “I’ve got a house now. A real nice place. I’m so blessed!”

Last week the Wardens and I sadly received a letter of resignation from Adam Blackmore, the St Peter’s Sacristan. Adam and David are moving to Ballarat. They will both be sorely missed by so many of us here at The Hill. Adam was appointed Sacristan in 1999, and has served the parish faithfully over the past twenty years. As you can see on p.6 of the pew sheet, our Music Administrator, Sue Wuttke, is organising a thank you gift, which you may wish to contribute towards.

Since Adam took sick leave from his parish duties in January, Eugene Chin has been serving as Acting-Sacristan. Eugene has kindly agreed to continue in this acting role, for which I am deeply grateful. At the upcoming Statutory Meeting, one of the items that we will be considering is a staff review, so I will hold off making a permanent Sacristan appointment until after any such review.

Today we welcome two new servers to the St Peter’s Guild of Servers: Cathy Gunning and Joe Edward-Smith. Our thanks to Alae Taule’alo, who has taken up new-server training duties this year; and to Head Server, Peter Bryce, for gallantly organising the currently rather slender servers’ roster. If any parishioners are interested in training as an altar server, or just finding out more about it, feel free to talk to me after Mass; or contact Peter Bryce, or Alae Taule’alo directly.

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 26.4-10

Moses spoke to the people, saying: “When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: “A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. “The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me.” And Moses continued, “You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God.”

Psalm : 91.1-2, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15

You who live in the shelter of the Most High,
who abide in the shadow of the Almighty,
will say to the Lord, “My refuge and my fortress;
my God, in whom I trust.” R.

No evil shall befall you,
no scourge come near your tent.

For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. R.

On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.

You will tread on the lion and the adder,
the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot. R.

Those who love me, I will deliver;

I will protect those who know my name.

When they call to me, I will answer them;

I will be with them in trouble, I will rescue them and honour them. R

Second Reading : Romans 10.8-13

Brothers and sisters, what does scripture say? “The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, No one who believes in him will be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Gospel : Luke 4.1-13

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’” Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’” Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’” Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

NOTICES

LAETARE SUNDAY & SIMNEL CAKES

We mark the mid-Lenten feast of Laetare Sunday with the distribution of traditional Simnel cake, with its distinct band of marzipan in the middle, to remind us that we are still in the strictures of Lent. This is a call to all bakers to help with cakes again this year – or for the first time (recipe can be provided!). It would be appreciated if cakes could be delivered by Friday 29th March, ahead of the Sunday, or arrangements could be made to collect them from you. Bags and ribbon can be provided or a 'slicing and bagging' will occur on the following Saturday if you can assist in this way. Please do talk to Fr Hugh for more information.

LENT STUDY – LED BY FR GREG DAVIES

A study and reflection upon the book ‘God is Good for You’ by journalist and author Greg Sheridan. It has a sub-title: A defense of Christianity in troubled times. This book deals with the place of Christianity in Australian society today in an honest, direct and ultimately positive manner – albeit from one Christian’s perspective.

Our study and reflection will take place over 4 weeks during Lent. This is a rather long book and so I envisage that we will be selective in what we cover and discuss.

I will use some of the reading and reflection approaches that are used in the Education for Ministry program for this study. However, in essence this remains a Lenten study that I trust will challenge and feed us as Christians as we strive to be faithful to living and proclaiming the Christian faith in an increasingly non-Christian culture.

Times: Wednesday Evenings from 7.30pm to 9.00pm
Dates: March 13th & 27th; April 10th & 17th
Venue: Handfield Chapel, St Peter’s Eastern Hill

The book can be ordered from the Bookshop at a cost of $33.00
It can also be downloaded as an ebook from Kobo for around $18.00

Please email Fr Greg on gregdavies121@icloud.com if you would like more information.

An exhibition of paintings on Dante La Vita Nuova

by Susan Southall

March 1-31, 2019

The images in La Vita Nuova are meditation pieces. The work consists of a number of small paintings inscribed with Dante's text.

The figure is in a state of meditation, or preparation: the viewer is invited to approach this meditating figure in various circumstances recalled by the script. These words evoke transitoriness, fragility, the impermanence of human life: mortality.

The story is also a reflection on the idea of undying love.

La Vita Nuova was first exhibited at St Francis' Pastoral Centre: St Francis' Church, Lonsdale Street in 2001. It is dedicated to the memory of Rachel Barber, who departed this life in 1999 at the age of fifteen.

Carmelite Library, 214 Richardson Street, Middle Park
Library opening hours: Tuesday 12-8, Wednesday-Friday 9-5

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS SEMINAR AT ST PETER'S

TUESDAY 30TH APRIL AT 10AM - 3PM IN THE PARISH HALL

It is a requirement of Archbishop in Council that all the following members of St Peter's Eastern Hill attend at least one Professional Standards Seminar in 2019: Clergy, Parish Lay Staff, Churchwardens, Parish Council members, Lay Ministers, and key parish volunteers (e.g servers, children's ministry etc). Please note that these training seminars are different from the OH&S sessions that were run in 2015. The Professional Standards seminars have been updated from the previous training that most Clergy have attended. Professional Standards Seminars should be completed every 3 years and anyone who has not attended a seminar since 2014 should attend one in 2019.

To assist St Peter's staff and volunteers in fulfilling this Diocesan requirement, we are hosting our own Professional Standards Seminar, facilitated by Ms Angela Cannon, at St Peter's Eastern Hill on Tuesday 30th April between 10am and 3pm in the Parish Hall. Tea and Coffee will be provided. Delegates will be required to sign the attendance sheet at the conclusion of the seminar to allow for entry into the Diocesan and Parish databases.

We are aware that this time may not suit everyone. If you are unable to attend this seminar, you will need to attend one of the other 2019 Diocesan Seminars. A list of these can be found at <https://bit.ly/2WUY6Ua>

Please note: If you have attended a Professional Standards Act seminar in the past three years you do not need to attend this seminar again. If you have not attended any – you are required to do so if you are in a ministry or key volunteer role.

In 2019 the ABM seeks your support for the work of ABM-assisted projects in Zambia & Australia.

Zambia: ST JOHN'S ANGLICAN SEMINARY

ABM has supported St John's Seminary for almost a decade now. It is the national seminary of the Anglican Church in Zambia, training ordinands and clergy from all five Anglican dioceses across Zambia. The training prepares them to minister in fast-growing urban and rural congregations of the Church. The seminary, which receives a small monthly grant from the National Church, does not charge tuition fees, in order to enable students from poor dioceses to attend. However, this operating grant is not enough to cover the seminary's expenses. It is dependent on donor aid for staff salary support, maintenance, its internet facility, and books for both the library and students' use after the training.

Australia: THE ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER MISSION FUND

With guidance from the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council (NATSIAC), ABM makes small grants available to projects which express the marks of mission and benefit Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Last year, grants from the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Mission Fund were used to strengthen youth ministry in Cape York, establish a new Aboriginal church, support young expectant mothers, and host a reconciliation art exhibition.
