ORDINARY SUNDAY 14

7TH JULY 2019

God of the covenant, in our baptism you called us to proclaim the coming of your kingdom: give us courage, as you gave it to the apostles, that we may faithfully witness to your love and peace in every circumstance of life; in the name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Please feel free to take this pew sheet home.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

Today we welcome Izabella Leela Forni who will be presented for baptism at the 9.30am Family Mass. It is always such a joy and a celebration to welcome a new member of the Body of Christ.

Last month we were blessed with some very special feast days. Corpus Christi again this year drew worshippers from across Victoria, and last week's Patronal Festival was another glorious celebration of the mystery of Christ's presence in our midst. Thank you to the Ven. Brigadier Rob Sutherland, our guest preacher; to the Choir and Serving Team; and to everyone who helped behind the scenes with set up and catering. Looking ahead, you may like to note in your diaries a number of upcoming special occasions, when we will be welcoming a number of guest preachers:

- Sunday 4th August – Dedication Festival – the Rev'd Dr Bob Derrenbacher, Dean of Trinity College Theological School.
- Thursday 15th August, 6.15pm – Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary – Bishop Lindsay Urwin, former Administrator of the Anglican Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham, in England.
- Sunday 18th August – Science Week – the Rev'd Dr Chris Mulherin, Executive Director of ISCAST, a network of people, from students to distinguished academics, exploring the interface of science, technology, and Christian faith.

We will also be welcoming back Fr Graeme Brennan in August, a former assistant priest at St Peter's, who will be worshipping with us for three weeks.

UPDATE ON LOUISE AND ANDREW LANG

Former St Peter's clergy, the Rev'ds Louise and Andrew Lang, moved to the Willochran Diocese earlier this year. They recently sent their greetings and an update for their friends at St Peter's. Louise is working as a Pastoral Care Worker and Chaplain, working at Curramulka Primary School and Yorketown Area School. She is also working with the Mission to Seafarers and on the Diocesan Anglicare committee. Andrew was recently appointed Archdeacon of Wakefield in addition to his parish duties as Rector of Minlaton.

PATRONAL FESTIVAL THANK-YOU

Last week some 120 parishioners gathered for the St Peter's Patronal Festival. Our guest preacher was the Venerable Brigadier Robert Sutherland.

Thank-you to everyone who contributed towards such a glorious celebration.

THE SOCIETY OF THE HOLY HOUSE OF OUR LADY OF WALSINGHAM - SAT 20TH JULY AT 9AM.

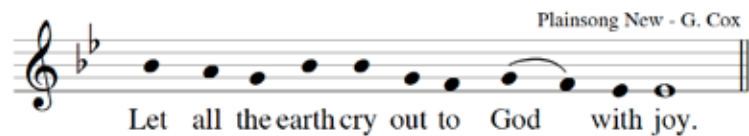

The Holy House in the Shrine Church at Walsingham focuses on the Incarnation: the mystery of the life, death & resurrection of Jesus. Devotion to Our Lady of Walsingham is always centred on the mystery of the Annunciation and is now the image is a focus of prayer in many places throughout the world. By the Holy Spirit, Mary leads us to Jesus, and her prayers help us to say 'yes' to God's will in our lives. On Saturday July 20th at the 9am Mass, Bishop Lindsay Urwin OGS, will admit potential members of the Society. If you are interested please contact Fr Hugh

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Isaiah 66.10-14

Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her—that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious bosom. For thus says the Lord: “I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and dandled on her knees. As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the Lord is with his servants.”

Psalm : 66.1-3a, 4-5, 6-7a, 16+20

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;
sing the glory of his name;
give to him glorious praise.
Say to God, “How awesome are your deeds!” R.
“All the earth worships you;
they sing praises to you, sing praises to your name.”
Come and see what God has done:
he is awesome in his deeds among mortals. R.
He turned the sea into dry land;
they passed through the river on foot.
There we rejoiced in him,
who rules by his might forever. R.
Come and hear, all you who fear God,
and I will tell what he has done for me.
Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me. R.

Second Reading: Galatians 6.14-18

May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule— peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. From now on, let no one make trouble for me; for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Gospel: Luke 10.1-12, 17-20

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this house!’ And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’ But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, ‘Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.’ I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.” The seventy returned with joy, saying, “Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!” Jesus said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

NEW RELEASES!

Living Well in the Presence of God - Everyday Spirituality for the Twenty-first Century by James Harlow Brown

Why is encountering God different today? Why do we need a spirituality for the twenty-first century? Christians are different today because we bring our postmodern mindsets and knowledge with us, as we try to faithfully relate with and follow Jesus, amid a secular-scientific culture. We cope with the challenges of following God everyday by carving out special times in our busy lives – ‘God-time’ – to place ourselves in God’s presence, in prayer, in church, in service. But what about the rest of the time? How can we completely commit our ‘me-time’ to God? Living Well gives readers a practical five step process for Everyday Spirituality. $19.95

A History of the Bible

by John Barton

‘An Anglican priest and Oxford professor, Barton brings the Good Book splendidly back to life. Stripping away centuries of theological interpretation, he recovers the biblical text as a “repository of writings” – narratives, aphorisms, poems and letters – that both Christianity and Judaism have used, twisted and embellished for their own purposes. It is an exhilarating achievement, freeing a vast, heterogeneous body of work from the dead hand of religious authorities who had turned it into “a paper dictator”.’ Julian Coman, reviewer in The Guardian.
