ST PETER'S EASTERN HILL

Diocese of Melbourne - Anglican Church of Australia
Parish Church of the City since 1847

ORDINARY SUNDAY 2

20TH JANUARY 2019

Bountiful God, whose Son revealed his glory at Cana of Galilee: help us to believe and obey, so that, as our Saviour promised, we may be filled with the wine of new life and show forth his joy and love; who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Please feel free to take this pew sheet home.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

“The Church is the only institution that exists primarily for the benefit of those who are not its members.” William Temple (1881-1944) Archbishop of Canterbury

This week's Vicar's Musings is a summary of my Report to the January Parish Council. My report was written as a precursor to the main agenda item, which was a discussion and noting of the letter from Vicar and Wardens to PC concerning alternate usage of Keble House.

Looking Back ... 7 Years of Significant Change at The Hill

- 2012 new Vicar inducted
- 2013 renewal of Klingner Scholarship program
- 2013/14 after long consultation process, parish agrees to embrace Ordained Women's Ministry at SPEH; the Rev'd Jenny Inglis becomes the first woman to Celebrate at the St Peter's altar; Bp Alison Taylor is then the first woman to Preside at High Mass (Candlemas)
- 2015 Parish Mission (first in 20 years) – visit of Bp Stephen Cottrell
- 2015 Catholic Evangelism – launch of 2015-18 Mission Action Plan
- 2015 launch of Corner Plaza and Coffee Cart Social Enterprise project
- 2017 Year of “Forgiveness and Kindness” – fostering respectful relationships in the parish
- 2017 first “double Klingner scholarship” offered, with alignment to Parish strategic priorities
- 2017 launch of Choral Scholarship Program
- 2017 Retirement of Bp Graeme and Fr Graeme; PC decision not to replace
- 2018 first year of staff restructuring to cut costs; clergy 2 EFT to 1 EFT; more reliance on lay volunteers and non-stipendiary clergy (eg ISS, EFM)
- 2018 launch of RMIT University Chaplaincy; employment of full-time Lay Minister
- 2018 first full year of Choral Concert Series
- 2018 “homeless campsite” issue resolved slowly over the year; relationship deepened with Anglicare; clearer protocols etc
- 2018 $400k raised for Corner Plaza and Coffee Cart; works begun

Looking Forward ... Building Our Vision Together

Last year the Vicar and Wardens appointed PC member, David Spriggs, to assist with the 2019-22 Mission Action Planning process. Our first step was a PC planning day. Notes from that day (published in pew sheet last year) are reproduced below:

- Overall Aim: to set in place plans and aspirations to ensure St Peter's will be a flourishing parish in 2030
- Nurturing our Community: this dimension included issues about our hospitality programme, incorporating new people, providing pastoral care, providing fellowship
- Our Mission to the Marginalised: this included our work with the Lazarus Centre, including the Corner Plaza development and Coffee Cart Social Enterprise
- Anglo-Catholic Worship: we have an important role in Melbourne, which we want to sustain, and to continue as a leading Anglo- Catholic parish. Linked to this was recognition of the importance of the Music Program and the Server's Guild
- RMIT Chaplaincy: this is a developing priority and was recognised as an area where further growth and links between RMIT and the parish could be explored.
- Christian Education and Spiritual Growth: another priority concerns the cluster of work we do on faith formation and faith development for adults, including the Institute of Spiritual Studies and the Education for Ministry program, but also including Mystics Anonymous and our Lent and Advent programs, as well as the Bookroom which is a distinct ministry. This area was seen as one where we might need to reflect on and develop a coherent strategy for what we are trying to do across all of these elements. Our Children's ministry was also highlighted
- Other Issues: Because we only had a half day, we didn't finish the process by finalising precisely what we wanted to do in each of those areas – and indeed whether we had the capacity to work across all of those areas at all – and this will be on the agenda for 2019 Parish Council meetings. We also didn't get time to focus on the capabilities we need – including financial resources – to do everything

CELEBRATING CANDLEMAS - SUNDAY 3RD FEBRUARY

This year we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, or Candlemas, on Sunday 3rd February at all Masses (transferred from 2nd February).

MASS READINGS

First Reading : Isaiah 62.1-5

The Lord says this: “For Zion’s sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed ‘Forsaken,’ and your land shall no more be termed ‘Desolate’; but you shall be called ‘My Delight Is in Her,’ and your land ‘Married’; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.”

Psalm : 96.1-2, 3-4, 7-8, 9-10ac

O sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord, all the earth.
Sing to the Lord, bless his name;
tell of his salvation from day to day. R.
Declare his glory among the nations,
his marvellous works among all the peoples.
For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised;
he is to be revered above all gods. R.
Ascribe to the Lord, O families of the peoples,
ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.
Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name;
bring an offering, and come into his courts. R.
Worship the Lord in holy splendour;
tremble before him, all the earth.
Say among the nations, “The Lord is king!
He will judge the peoples with equity.” R.

Second Reading : 1 Corinthians 12.4-11

There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Gospel : John 2.1-12

There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding about a hundred litres. Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.” So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.” Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him. After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they remained there a few days.

PÁDRAIG Ó TUAMA

CONFLICT, REFLECTION AND CREATIVITY

“Northern Ireland peacemaker, poet and theologian, Pádraig Ó Tuama’s work centres around themes of language, religion, conflict and art. Working fluently on the page and with groups of people from various religions and walks of life, Pádraig is a skilled speaker, teacher and group worker.”

Spend a day with Pádraig Ó Tuama on Tuesday, 12 February 2019. Pádraig inspired many SCA members and friends during the 2016 SCA Conference in Melbourne. Now you have the opportunity to kick off your professional development for 2019 with seminars with Pádraig. He will lead two sessions across the day and you can attend one or both.

TUESDAY 12 FEBRUARY 2019

MORNING SESSION 9AM – 12.30PM

A workshop-based session for Spiritual Care Practitioners and others that will explore their role in resolving interreligious, workplace and interpersonal conflict. The session will run for approximately three-hours and will be a mixture of didactic and practical exercises.

AFTERNOON SESSION 1.30PM – 4PM

A retreat-style workshop that aims to nourish attendees. Pádraig will lead us through a reflective process that will engage our inner self using creative approaches such as poetry, music and mindfulness.

The Second Robin Sharwood Lecture in Church Law

ANGLICAN CANON LAW: IDENTITY, ECCLESIOLOGY AND ECUMENISM

One of the unique features of Anglicanism is the seemingly paradoxical manner in which its component provinces are autonomous yet in communion one with another. Professor Hill will explore if it is possible to frame principles of canon law drawn from the common features of the local laws of each province. These in turn contribute to the self-understanding of Anglican identity worldwide. The lecture will consider how this can prove a fruitful subject for study as a form of applied ecclesiology, and how it can bring vision and vitality to the ecumenical endeavour.

The second Robin Sharwood Lecture will be delivered by Professor Mark Hill, QC. Professor Hill was appointed Queen's Counsel in 2009 and is Chancellor of the Church of England Dioceses of Chichester, Leeds and Europe, a member of the Legal Advisory Commission of the General Synod of the Church of England, an Honorary Professor of Law at Cardiff University, and an adjunct professor at Notre Dame University Law School in Sydney.

He has published widely in the area of ecclesiastical law, including the leading textbook Ecclesiastical Law (now in its fourth edition), as well as English Canon Law, Religious Liberty and Human Rights, Religion and Discrimination Law in the European Union, Religion and Law in the United Kingdom and Great Christian Jurists in English Law. He is currently working on an edited volume, Christianity and Criminal Law: An Introduction.

ST PETER'S BOOKROOM & CHURCH SUPPLIES

RECOMMENDED SUMMER READING!

A title published in 2018 that many customers enjoyed and spoke highly of.

Paul: A Biography by N T Wright

For centuries, Paul, the apostle who “saw the light on the Road to Damascus” and changed dramatically from zealous Pharisee persecutor to devoted follower of Jesus, has been one of the church's most widely cited early teachers. Yet for leading New Testament scholar and Anglican bishop N.T.Wright, most Bible scholars and pastors have not fully grasped what Paul was actually doing and why.

In this pioneering new account, Wright celebrates Paul's humanity, arguing that this is the best context for understanding him and ultimately for appreciating how he invented new paradigms for how we understand Jesus.

“The problem,” Wright explains, “is that while Paul is central to any understanding of early Christianity, we cannot understand him without taking full account of the pre-Christian Jewish beliefs and hopes that he believed had been fulfilled in Jesus.” Only when we consider Paul in this manner can we move on to understand how he led the way for Christianity to conquer the Roman world.
