HOSPITAL CHAPLAINCY SUNDAY

(Ordinary Sunday 24)

15TH SEPTEMBER 2019

Undaunted you seek the lost, O God, exultant you bring home the found: touch our hearts with grateful wonder at the tenderness of your forbearing love grant us delight in the mercy that has found us; and bring all to rejoice at the feast of forgiven sinners. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen

Please feel free to take this pew sheet home.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

On Tuesday this week “Heaven at The Hill” - the St Peter’s Social Enterprise Inc. coffee caravan - commenced trading on the corner of Gisborne and Albert Streets. It has been a long road, since our Parish Mission of 2015 when we first floated the idea, but the dream has finally become a reality. Every day of the week from here on in, Monday to Friday, from 9am to 2pm, we will be selling coffee and muffins to passers by. A huge thank you is due to everyone who has believed in the vision, prayed, donated, fundraised, planned and worked so hard to get to this day.

Dr Ree Boddé, the “Heaven” Operational Manager, along with Rhys, the newly appointed Head Barista, have put in hours and hours of voluntary time each week for months now to get the enterprise off the ground - thank you for your drive and boundless energy in jumping the hurdles! Our thanks also to Adolf Mora who was our first Head Barista in 2015, during the pilot and development phase; to our mission partner Anglicare Victoria; John Taaff, and all members of the St Peter’s Eastern Hill Charitable Foundation; Krystyna Campbell-Pretty, and her team on the Fundraising Committee; Stephen Duckett, and the St Peter’s Parish Council; the Social Enterprise Management Committee; and the numerous volunteers who have given so kindly and generously of their time over the years: thank you all!

Now, our prayers are for a steady stream of customers each day, and for a flourishing of the employment pathways and volunteering opportunities that we can now offer in very concrete ways to those in necessitous circumstances. Deo gratias!

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Exodus 32.7-11, 13-14

At the top of Mount Sinai, the Lord said to Moses, “Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!”” The Lord said to Moses, “I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.” But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, “O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’” And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Psalm : 51.1-2, 10-11, 15+17

Have mercy on me, O God,
according to your steadfast love;
according to your abundant mercy
blot out my transgressions.
Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin. R.
Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and put a new and right spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
and do not take your holy spirit from me. R.

O Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will declare your praise.
The sacrifice acceptable to God
is a broken spirit;
a broken and contrite heart, O God,
you will not despise. R.

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 1.12-17

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners— of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel: Luke 15.1-32

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So Jesus told them a parable: “Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

NOTICES

EFM GROUP BOOK STUDY

Please join us for an October study of the book The Dream of God by Verna J. Dozier. When: Sunday October 20th 1pm & repeated on Wednesday October 23rd 2pm
Sunday October 27th 1pm & repeated on Wednesday October 30th 2pm

This is an Education for Ministry Interlude book and the study will be lead by Fr Greg. A challenging book that calls on the church to return to the Dream of God, Dozier poses some challenging questions and suggests that the Church has chosen to worship Jesus rather than follow him and as such has lost the 'dream of god'. The book can be ordered from the St Peter's bookroom. Start reading and I do hope as many of you as possible can join our EFM group in this study. Fr Greg Davies

CELL OF OUR LADY OF WALSINGHAM - MASS & BREAKFAST

On Saturday, September 21st at 9am in the Chapel of Our Lady, members of the Society of Our Lady of Walsingham will honour Mary, the Mother of God. This will be followed by breakfast in the Hall. All are welcome. The Cell pray for the mission of the Church & for her unity. Members of the Cell devote themselves to prayer, reading of the scriptures & the Eucharist. They undertake to say the Angelus each day and lamps burn for members of the Society at the Walsingham Shrine. For further information, please contact Liz Prideaux on lizpx@bigpond.net.au

PASTORAL CARE REVIEW

Parish Council has established a Pastoral Care Review guided by a small subcommittee consisted of Stephen Duckett (chair), Fr Hugh, and Peter Yewers. The review will be undertaken by Shirley Nash, an experienced pastoral care educator and practitioner who will report back to the subcommittee and Parish Council. Shirley will convene meetings after each of the Sunday morning masses to canvas views on September 22, please. If you would like to put any views to Shirley about pastoral care issues that she should take into account in her review, please email her on shirley_jn@hotmail.com. If you'd like to set up a personal meeting with Shirley, please let me know.

Support West Papua

We need the Australian government to support a motion at the 2019 U.N General Assembly to register West Papua on the UN Decolonization List.

West Papuans produced 1.8M signatures and delivered them to the UN in New York and Geneva.

Help us match their incredible and costly effort. Use phone, computer, or pen & paper. Share with friends and networks. We are hand-delivering your petitions (in boxes) to the Australian Parliament this month.

PLEASE SIGN THE PETITION AT DecolonizeWestPapua.com
