

Welcome to

ST PETER'S EASTERN HILL

Diocese of Melbourne - Anglican Church of Australia
Parish Church of the City since 1846

ORDINARY SUNDAY 32

10TH NOVEMBER 2019

God of all the living, in the resurrection of Christ Jesus you have given us the promise of life which death itself cannot destroy: in the strength of this unshakable promise, give us a new heart to live, even now, as your new creation. We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Please feel free to take this pew sheet home.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

A very warm welcome to all parishioners and friends of St Peter's, as we gather later today for the opening and rededication of St Peter's Place and the Wayside Cross. Ninety-five years since the Wayside Cross was first dedicated, and after more than four years of visioning, planning, fundraising, and implementation, today we give thanks for God's grace, and for the hard work and generosity of so many people in achieving this goal. Further details and specific thanks can be found in the Order of Service for our celebrations that you were given on arrival.

'PAYING THE PIPER' CONCERT AT ST PETER'S - TODAY AT 4:30PM

Today at 4.30pm St Peter's will host a fundraising organ recital to aid Wangaratta Cathedral after the significant Willis organ was seriously damaged by a sudden plague of rats. Three outstanding organists, including Rhys Arvidson, and Wangaratta Cathedral's own Hugh Fullarton, plus a guest cellist, will perform works including Bach, Marchand, and Saint-Saëns. All money raised will go towards the restoration of the Wangaratta organ. Accordingly, the rather grand $50 ticket price reflects this. At point of sale an option to donate an additional sum is provided, for those so inclined. Any such donation can be claimed as a tax deduction through the Wangaratta Music Foundation. We hope to see you there! Please join us afterward, for champagne and canapés. Contact: Helen Morris, 0412210761 helen@helenmorris.net - Bookings: www.trybooking.com/BEPHF

MASS READINGS

First Reading: 2 Maccabees 7.1-2, 9-14

It happened that seven brothers and their mother were arrested and were being compelled by King Antiochus, under torture with whips and thongs, to partake of unlawful swine's flesh. One of the brothers, speaking for all, said, "What do you intend to ask and learn from us? For we are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors." After the first brother had died, they brought forward the second for their sport. And when he was at his last breath, he said to King, "You accursed wretch, you dismiss us from this present life, but the King of the universe will raise us up to an everlasting renewal of life, because we have died for his laws." After him, the third was the victim of their sport. When it was demanded, he quickly put out his tongue and courageously stretched forth his hands, and said nobly, "I got these from Heaven, and because of God's laws I disdain them, and from God I hope to get them back again." As a result the king himself and those with him were astonished at the young man's spirit, for he regarded his sufferings as nothing. After the third brother too had died, they maltreated and tortured the fourth in the same way. When he was near death, he said to his torturers, "One cannot but choose to die at the hands of mortals and to cherish the hope God gives of being raised again by him. But for you, there will be no resurrection to life!"

Psalm : 17.1, 5-6, 8+15

Hear a just cause, O Lord;

attend to my cry;

give ear to my prayer

from lips free of deceit. R.

My steps have held fast to your paths;

my feet have not slipped.

I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God;

incline your ear to me, hear my words. R.

Guard me as the apple of the eye;

hide me in the shadow of your wings,

As for me, I shall behold your face in righteousness;

when I awake I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness. R.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2.16 - 3.5

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word. Brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified everywhere, just as it is among you, and that we may be rescued from wicked and evil people; for not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will go on doing the things that we command. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

Gospel: Luke 20.27-38

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.”

FLOWERS IN CHURCH

Flower today are given by Bronwyn Large in loving memory of her uncle Captain Percy Cherry VC MC, who served in WWI, but sadly died from his battle wounds. He was only 21 years old. Flowers in church are also given by Sarah Dowe in loving memory of her second husband Doug Dowe, whose year's mind fell yesterday.

COMINGS AND GOINGS - PAUL DANIELS AND FR ROGER PROWD

Today we say farewell to Klingner Scholar, Paul Daniels, from the Bendigo Diocese. Paul has been working with Children's Church, and as a member of the Guild of Servers since February this year. Thank-you Paul for all the energy you have brought to your placement. You will be missed. But as we say at The Hill "once a St Peterite always a St Peterite". We look forward to seeing you again whenever you are free.

Today also, I am delighted to welcome Fr Roger Prowd to the clergy team at St Peter's. Fr Roger and his daughters have been regular members of the 9:30am Family Mass congregation for the past year, and he has kindly offered to serve the parish of St Peter's in a non-stipendiary capacity on Sundays as required. Below is a letter of introduction from Fr Roger, for those of you who may not know him.

Fr Hugh Kempster, Vicar

Dear people of St Peter's, Eastern Hill,

I have enjoyed being part of the parish community for the past 12 months and am grateful to Fr Hugh for accepting my application to be part of the honorary clergy team. I am looking forward to being with you on occasion in this way after an initial time of being nourished by the worship and music of this lovely church. Surely the parish's unique role in this diocese is now needed more than ever.

Part of the antidote to the toxicity of our stressful times is found here for me in the experience of worship that St Peter's provides – peaceful, deeply reflective and aesthetically beautiful. It does not remove me from the struggles that life brings but restores perspective to them and brings healing. I thought it might be helpful to write a little about myself by way of introduction. I have been an Anglican priest for over 30 years and retired from full-time ministry in early 2017 after ten years as vicar of St Stephen's, Gardenvale, followed by a half-time locum for twelve months at St Peter's, Murrumbreena. Prior to Gardenvale I worked for twelve years as a hospital chaplain and in aged care chaplaincy, and before that five years as vicar of St Agnes', Black Rock.

At present I work part-time as the Anglican chaplain at Caulfield Hospital and take occasional locums. I am married to Kate who was consecrated a bishop in October last year. Kate and I met at the United Faculty of Theology when we were studying there in the early 1980's. We have three lovely daughters, two grown up (Phoebe 30 and Cordelia 27) and Eleanor who is 15. Thank you for your fellowship and the richness that your community offers.

Fr Roger Prowd

NEW RELEASE!

Foundations of Anglican Evangelicalism in Victoria: Four Elements for Continuity, 1847-1937

For more than half a century, the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne was unquestionably the most rigorously evangelical and missions-oriented diocese in Australia. The Diocese of Sydney, in that same period, was decidedly broader in theological and liturgical practice. How and why did Melbourne move in one direction, while Sydney in the other? This study suggests that the answers are to be found in four vital contributors: local churches, evangelical societies, theological colleges, and diocesan bishops. For three broad periods of history between 1847 and 1937, the presence of these four contributors is uncovered, described, and evaluated for the Diocese of Melbourne. Evangelical activism, theological reflection, and leadership are each shown in their contemporary contexts to help us understand how people with gospel passion sought to respond faithfully to their times. $49.95
