ORDINARY SUNDAY 33

15TH NOVEMBER 2020

Everliving God, before the earth was formed, and even after it shall cease to be, you are God. Break into our short span of life and show us those things that are eternal, that we may serve your purpose in all we do; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in unity with the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

It is my pleasure to welcome back to St Peter's our guest preacher, the Rev'd Christine Angus. A former parishioner, Christine was ordained priest in the Ballarat Diocese in August last year; the first female member of the Servers' Guild to be priested in the history of our church. Although continuing to serve God in the Ballarat Diocese, Bishop Garry has kindly said that he is happy for Christine to visit us at St Peter's a few times each year.

I am also delighted to announce that the Klingner Trustees have now selected our two 2021 Klingner Scholars: Xeverie Swee and Eugene Chin. Many of you will already know Xeverie, who has now been selected for a second year of scholarship. Eugene is also well known to parishioners, having served as Sacristan for the past two years, and will be entering the Diocesan Year of Discernment in 2021 alongside studying Theology at Trinity College Theological School.

As you are all probably well aware by now, our Annual Meeting will be held on-line next Sunday 22nd November, from 2.00pm to 3.30pm. The Annual Report and a draft of the 2021-23 Mission Action Plan are available on the parish website for you to read ahead of the meeting: <https://www.stpeters.org.au/annual-meeting>.

To join the meeting next Sunday at 2.00pm, click the link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88588473785> Or alternatively, you may prefer to phone into the Annual Meeting by calling: (03) 7018 2005. You will then be asked to enter the Meeting ID: 885-8847-3785 and you can hear the whole meeting on your phone, and also speak to the meeting if you would like. If you are not familiar with Zoom, or have any questions, please feel free to phone the Parish Office for help.

The nominations for Parish Office are listed opposite. As you can see, the Wardens and Parish Council members do not require an election, but there are three nominations for the two Inc incumbency Committee positions, so a vote is required. Everyone on the Electoral Roll will have received either an e-mail, or a hard-copy of the voting form from the Returning Officer, our Parish Council Secretary, Daniel Mitterdorfer. If you have any questions or concerns, do call the Parish Office on (03) 9662 2391 and we can put you in touch with Daniel.

SUNDAY MASS READINGS

First Reading: Proverbs 31.10-13, 16-18, 20, 26, 28-31

A capable wife, who can find her? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. She girds herself with strength, and makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. Her children rise up and call her happy; her husband too, and he praises her: "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her a share in the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the city gates.

Psalm 128.1-2, 3, 4-5

Plainsong New - G. Cox

Hap - py are those who fear the Lord.

Happy is the one who fears the Lord,
who walks in his ways.

You shall eat the fruit of the labour of your hands;
you shall be happy, and it shall go well with you. R.

Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
within your house;
your children will be like olive shoots around your table. R.

Thus shall the man be blessed who fears the Lord.

The Lord bless you from Zion.

May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life. R.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5.1-6

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness for that day to surprise you like a thief. You are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.

Gospel: Matthew 24.36; 25.14-30

Jesus said to his disciples, “About the day and hour of the coming of the Son of Man, no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ ‘And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’ But his master replied, ‘You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”

THE DAILY OFFICE AT HOME

In these days of pandemic we are nor currently able to gather in worship community as we used to. Many parishioners, however, are finding it a comfort to worship and pray at home. It is a long-held tradition for Christians, Lay and Ordained, to pray the Daily Office. All you need is a Bible and A Prayer Book. If you only have one or neither of these at home, call Carol in the Bookroom, or online at :

ADVENT GROUP AT ST PETER'S

In the Bleak Midwinter: Advent and Christmas with Christina Rosetti, Ed by Rachel Mann. ($34.95)

Carol O'Connor, our Bookroom manager, is offering an Advent Group based on this book by Rachel Mann on Zoom. The Group will meet first on Tuesday 1st December at 5.00pm, and subsequent Tuesdays during Advent at 7:30pm.

Rossetti's rich and wondrous faith provides an inspiring seasonal companion particularly for this 2020 Advent period during a world pandemic. How can we celebrate the joy of Christmas this year?

These 50 choice poems, one for each day of the Advent and Christmas season, are there, as Church of England priest and poet Rachel Mann says, for anyone who wants to 'peel back the pages of a book and think: How can I encounter God during this season.'

'Come. Look. See. Taste these poems and be prepared to be surprised. Rosetti wants us to go through her words and encounter God, the very centre of our being, our reality and life's core.'

Please email the Bookroom bookroom@stpeters.org.au or phone Carol directly (mob: 0400 334 882) if you would like to be part of this group. We are currently holding some copies of the book, but extra copies will take a week to 10 days to come in.

St Peter's Eastern Hill Webinar

ADVENT: LIMINALITY & HOPE TUESDAY 1ST DEC AT 7:00 PM

As we commence Advent, at the end of an extraordinary year in the collective liminal space of the global pandemic, Bishop Kate Prowd and Rev'd Dr Wendy Crouch will be reflecting with us on our journey through the 'betwixt and between' of liminal spaces with their gifts as well as challenges.

Bishop Kate Prowd was ordained deacon (1986) and priest (1992) during years of intense debate over the ordination of women. Her consecration as bishop took place in October 2018. Kate's clerical appointments have all been in the Melbourne Diocese, in both parish and school chaplaincy. Kate is also a Clinical Psychologist. She has a particular vocational and professional interest in clergy wellbeing, mission, and exploring the connections between spirituality and psychology.

The Reverend Dr Wendy Crouch is a priest in the Melbourne Anglican Diocese, currently ministering in the Richmond Anglican parishes. With a background as a clinical psychologist, she is passionate about using an integrative approach to applying insights from both psychology and spirituality to promote emotional and faith development

SUPPORT OUR CHRISTMAS APPEAL

We've been helping the homeless every day for the last 28 years, but 2020 has been a very challenging year – each week, we've had four times the usual number of people come to us for help. And many of them are different people to those we usually see.

The pandemic has left many young people and international students destitute in our city. The jobs have dried up, they are not eligible for government assistance and they've been going hungry.

Fortunately, thanks to your support and the work of our wonderful staff and volunteers in the Social Enterprise, we've been able to work with State Parliament House to distribute cooked meals as well as staples like milk and bread, providing an important lifeline to these needy young people and others in similar need..

We're now launching our Christmas appeal to help get everyone through summer.

If you're in a position to help with a donation, please give. In addition to continuing our program providing breakfast and packaged meals, we want to provide a Christmas package to those we support. Something to help restore a sense of dignity and bring some joy to those doing it tough.

- FEEDING OVER 450 PEOPLE A WEEK
- 50,000 MEALS DISTRIBUTED SINCE MARCH
- PEOPLE WHO HAVE NEVER BEFORE NEEDED HELP

ST PETER'S BOOKROOM & CHURCH SUPPLIES

It was a shock to learn about the death of world spiritual leader Rabbi Jonathan Sacks this week. He leaves behind an amazing legacy of teaching and books.

Morality published this year, is a reclaiming of the deep truths about what it means to be human: we live not alone but connected into communities of others; human life holds intrinsic values which help orient us toward wholeness and the good life for each and everyone of us, and; all economies need ethics. Morality is a book for everyone to read. The lightness of Jonathan Sack's prose and relevance to our current world makes this book a rich, thought provoking read.
