PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

(Candlemas)

2ND FEBRUARY 2020

Almighty and everlasting God, we humbly pray that, as your only Son was presented in the temple in accordance with the law, so we may be dedicated to you with pure and clean hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please feel free to take this pew sheet home.

VICAR'S MUSINGS

Every blessing to you and yours on this feast of “Presentation of The Lord in the Temple”, also known colloquially as “Candlemas”. I hope that you have managed to have a good summer break, or at least some down time. Our hearts and prayers go out to all those affected by the bushfires that have raged over summer months; to those who have lost loved ones, homes and livelihoods; not to mention the devastating impact on livestock, wildlife and the environment.

My family was blessed to have had two weeks in India last month, celebrating our daughter's 21st birthday. We experienced the religious diversity of “Incredible India”, from the Islamic call to prayer that echoed across every city and town we visited, to Shah Jahan's monumental expression of divine and human love in the Taj Mahal, the deeply contemplative Mahabodhi Temple marking the place where Buddha attained enlightenment, the shock of animal sacrifice at the Kali Temple, and the familiarity of transplanted Victorian Christianity at St James Old Cathedral in Kolkata.

Back down to earth now! There are a number of services and events here at The Hill that may be of interest to you in coming weeks.

Today, Sunday 2nd February - Candlemas.

There will be a liturgy of Commissioning for the newly elected Parish Council, and two new St Peter's staff members, at all morning Masses today. At 9.30am there will also be a short liturgy of “Blessing the Back-packs”, for those who have recently started term one at school or kindergarten.

Please note, the Parish Picnic scheduled for after High Mass today has been cancelled due to the heavy rain this weekend, which has made the park rather sodden. But please still bring your packed lunch, or just come and join us, and we will gather in the Hall instead after High Mass for a shared lunch.

Tuesday 4th Feb, 11am - Show of Support for Bushfire Victims and Firefighters

The Victorian Multicultural Commission (VMC) in conjunction with the Faith Communities Council of Victoria, is hosting a multifaith event at the steps of State Parliament, to support the parliament in their efforts to lead the state, support the recovery efforts and show our support for the bushfire victims and firefighters. The Premier, Leader of the Opposition, and Leader of the Greens will be speaking, and as Chaplain to Parliament I will lead in prayer.

Saturday 15th February, 10am to 4pm - Parish Leadership Quiet Day

The St Peter's Parish Council, Clergy, Staff, and Lay Leaders will be gathering at the Community of the Holy Name in Cheltenham for a Quiet Day of prayer for one another and our parish. Roland Ashby, parishioner and former editor of The Melbourne Anglican, will be leading two sessions on "Christian Meditation" and "Lectio Divina". The Quiet Day Mass will be celebrated by the Rev'd Colleen Clayton, former St Peter's Klingner Scholar, who will preach on the theme of "Eucharist as prayer." Please pray for the leadership of our parish as we meet and lay spiritual foundations for the year ahead.

Wednesday 12th February, 11am Mass followed by Lunch - Friends of St Peter's

Do join us for our quarterly "Friends of St Peter's" Mass and Lunch. All are welcome, from St Peter's and from other parishes, as well as those who may be exploring faith. This is an opportunity to reach out to others and share in the breaking of bread together.

Sunday 23rd February, 6pm Evensong and Benediction

On the Feast of the Transfiguration this year we recommence our monthly service of Evensong and Benediction, led by the Choir. If you've not yet experienced this peaceful and deeply devotional service, do come. Those who come regularly will attest to the beauty of holiness that is to be found here.

Tuesday 25th February, 6pm - Shrove Tuesday Pancake Party

Come and help empty those pantries as we prepare for the Lenten fast. We will burn last year's palm crosses, to create the ash for imposition. Then there will be children's activities and lots of pancakes to enjoy; fun for all the family and friends.

Wednesday 26th February - Ash Wednesday

A day of obligation for Anglo-catholic Christians: 7.15am Mass and Imposition of Ashes, followed by "Ashes to Go" at Parliament Station; 1.15pm Mass and Imposition of Ashes; 6.15pm High Mass and Imposition of Ashes.

Lenten Study Groups - further details to come

Confirmation - for those seeking confirmation I will be leading an adult preparation group over Lent, and another group for children.

Education for Ministry (EFM) - Fr Greg has groups running through Lent.

Christian Meditation - Roland Ashby will also be leading groups in Lent on "Lectio Divina" and "Mantra Meditation in the Christian tradition".

VICTORIAN BUSHFIRE EMERGENCY APPEAL

Bushfires continue to burn in one of Victoria's, and indeed Australia's worst fire seasons to date. Vast swathes of Victorian bushland have been devastated by these catastrophic fires, with many people now left without shelter, food, water and everyday essentials. For many Victorian communities, particularly in the East Gippsland region, fear and uncertainty remains as fires continue to burn out of control. Anglicare Victoria is now collecting donations for emergency relief to help those who have been affected by these bushfires. Your generous donations will be used by Anglicare Victoria regional offices for emergency supplies and other supports:

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Malachi 3.1-4

Thus says the Lord God: "See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight - indeed, he is coming," says the Lord of hosts. "But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years."

Psalm : 24.7, 8, 9, 10

Lift up your heads, O gates!
and be lifted up, O ancient doors!
that the King of glory may come in. R.
Who is the King of glory?
The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle. R.
Lift up your heads, O gates!
and be lifted up, O ancient doors!
that the King of glory may come in. R.
Who is this King of glory?
The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory. R.

Second Reading: Hebrews 2.10-11, 13b-18

It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the source of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, "Here am I, and the children whom God has given me." Since the children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that Jesus did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because Jesus himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Gospel: Luke 2.22-40

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, the parents of Jesus brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. As it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord," and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons." Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel." The child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed - and a sword will pierce your own soul too." There was also a prophet, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. When the parents of Jesus had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.
